THE END ...OR THE BEGINNING...

Revelation 10

- The Angel's role:

- John's role:

- Two Witnesses' role:

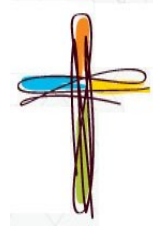

- My role:

All who love Jesus Christ can relate to John's ambivalence. Believers long for Christ to return in glory, for Satan to be destroyed, and the glorious kingdom of our Lord to be set up on earth, in which He will rule in universal sovereignty and glory while establishing in the world righteousness, truth and peace. But we, mourn bitterly over the judgment of the ungodly. There is joy and sorrow, sweetness and bitterness, gladness and sadness when God's Word does its perfect saving and sanctifying work in our lives.

Dix Hills Evangelical Free

October 25, 2020

Welcome! Thank you for worshipping with us today!

9:00 AM Traditional Service

10:30 AM Contemporary Service

You see, at just the right time, when we were still powerless, Christ died for the ungodly. Very rarely will anyone die for a righteous person, though for a good person someone might possibly dare to die. But God demonstrates his own love for us in this: While we were still sinners, Christ died for us.

1. What are some of your favorite things about this time of year (or do you miss summer)?
2. How have you and your family been dealing with this new school year and new season of life? What challenges have you faced and what unexpected blessings have you encountered?
3. Read Rev 10:4-7; 2 Pet 3:2-3, 8-10. Why is God's timing for the world's end perfect? What is God trying to accomplish by delaying its end until the right time?
4. Read Rev 10:8-11. Why was God's Word sweet and bitter for John? What are some of the truths you find hard to swallow in God's Word? What keeps you from feeding on the Word and digesting it?
5. Read Rev 11:3-10. Why does the world rejoice at the death of the 2 witnesses? Do you see that same spirit today? Why or why not?
6. Read Rev 11:11-14. How does God promise to vindicate those who faithfully serve Him even unto death? How should that give us confidence and hope? See John 11:25-26; 1 Cor 15:51-55.
7. What role is God calling you to take in these challenging times we're living in? What makes you fearful about serving Him and how can you be encouraged?
