THE END ...OR THE BEGINNING...

Revelation 12 ~ Apocalyptic Christmas

- Jesus' birth:

- even when _____

- Satan's accusations:

- even when _____

The perpetual spiritual tattletale has been kicked out of the heavenly house.

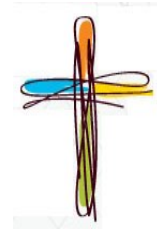

Daniel L. Akin
"Exalting Jesus in Revelation"

Satan hates us. Never forget those three words if you love and follow Christ. Satan wants nothing more than to sabotage our love for God and for others, to tempt us into a moral catastrophe, and to see us choose a lifestyle of sin rather than a walk with Christ. When we falter, he stands ready to accuse us before God. When we pass the tests of temptation, he looks beyond that and is already strategizing his next attack. Satan's hatred of us is relentless.

THE END ...OR THE BEGINNING...

Finally, be strong in the Lord and in the strength of his might. Put on the whole armor of God, that you may be able to stand against the schemes of the devil. For we do not wrestle against flesh and blood, but against the rulers, against the authorities, against the cosmic powers over this present darkness, against the spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly places.

1. When do you start preparing for Christmas and listening to Christmas music? Are you someone who likes to start early?
2. Read Rev 12:1-5. Who is the woman, the child and the dragon? How is this a retelling of the Christmas story? See Luke 2:4-7.
3. How would you describe Satan's identity? See Rev 12:9; Isa 14:12-15. Why do you think he was so desperate to devour the child? See Luke 1:31-33; Matt 2:13,16.
4. In what ways have we fallen victim to Satan's lies and his reign over us? See Eph 2:1-3.
5. Read Rev 12:7-8. Why is it important to realize that we're in the middle of a cosmic, spiritual battle even though we can't see it? See Eph 6:10-12.
6. Read Rev 12:10-11. How does Satan try to accuse us? How have those accusations been forever silenced?
7. In what ways do we still try to accuse ourselves? How should we battle this tendency and experience the Lord's peace? See Rom 8:1-2.
